The #3 Seed Las Vegas Elite defeated the #1 Seed Las Vegas Union 13-9 at Liberty High School

In an on the edge of your seat game, Eli Yamauchi made a game saving sack on the games very last play to preserve the victory for the Las Vegas Elite over the Las Vegas Union in what had to be the closest Nevada State Championship Game in years. In the 1st quarter both teams battled behind ferocious defenses and there was no scoring. In the 2nd quarter the Elite scored on a 12-yard TD pass to Eli Yamauchi from QB Gavin Day and with the 1-point conversion led 7-0. In the 3rd quarter, the Union struck fast as Trey'Shaun Jackson returned the kickoff 64-yards and with a 1-point conversion by Massiah Mingo evened the game up at 7-7. In the 4th quarter the Elite took a 13-7 lead on a beautiful 40-yard TD pass to Jacob Maiava from QB Gavin Day. The Union got the ball back and drove to the Elite 1-yard line where the Elite defense made an incredible goal line stand. The Elite took over on their own 1-yard line when on 1st down from their own 2-yard line the Elite ball carrier was smothered in the end zone by the Unions Malachi McKnight for a 2-point safety. With 1:38 remaining, the Union trailed 13-9. The Union received the safety free kick and marched inside the Elite 5-yard line yet again. The Elite defense made tremendous stops on 1st, 2nd, and 3rd downs. On 4th down from the 5-yard line with the game on the line, Eli Yamauchi made the game ending sack on the Union QB to seal the championship victory. The Elite offense rushed for 112 yards with Parker Stovall and Vaimaona Manutai combining for 92 yards. QB Gavin Day passed for 75 yards.
