

SPRING 2018 NYS NEVADA TACKLE FOOTBALL

14U DIVISION REVIEWS

May 19th, 2018

The BG Gators and Las Vegas Union were crowned Co-Champions

This game was declared a draw as the Las Vegas Union was leading the BG Gators 25-20 with 8 minutes left in the game when the field became unplayable when the sprinkler system went on. Unfortunately, at this point there was no option but to stop the game as both teams had played incredible football as the game pushed deep into the night. Both teams agreed to play the remainder of the game at another date, but neither team could agree on a date, so it was determined that both teams would get to take home championship trophies and rings. In a wild scoring 1st quarter, the Gators scored on a 48-yard run by Kodi Decambra for a 7-0 lead. The Union came back and scored on a 63-yard run by Masiah Pagota, and the Gators led 7-6. The Union took the lead 12-7 on a 23-yard TD pass to Kyrie Schoels from QB Kyle Holmes. The Gators chomped back and took a 13-12 lead on a 17-yard TD pass to Germie Bernard from QB Makavelli Novera. Just before halftime the Gators increased their lead to 20-12 on a 10-yard run by Germie Bernard. In the 3rd quarter the Union scored on a 73-yard run by Masiah Pagota and the Gators led 20-18. Later in the 3rd quarter the Union took the lead 25-20 on a 1-yard run by DeAndre Washington. After about 2 minutes into the 4th quarter the Field sprinkler system went on and ended the game. The Gators were led by Kodi Decambra and Makavelli Novera with a combined 105 yards rushing. Novera completed 9 of 18 passes for 116 yards, and Germie Bernard had 5 receptions for 60 yards. The Union were led by QB Kyle Holmes with 141-yards passing.
